

FRONTIER DAY PLANS MATURE

The Call of Mile High City Again Sounds In the Realm, and Tourists Look to Prescott for Cool Summer Vacation

BY GRACE M. SPARKES

PRESCOTT, May 8. (Special)—"Stay cowboy! Let 'er buck," are again the familiar terms in the Mile High City. For elaborate plans are now maturing for the Fourth Annual Frontier Days Celebration at Prescott on July 4, 5, 6 and 7. And now word comes from Tucson that the republicans of the state are going to have an adjourned session of their state convention in our "mongst" on July 6.

Designed as this event was in 1912, to form an attractive entertainment feature for the residents of the Salt River Valley and Northern Arizona, who desire to spend their vacations among the pines, the Frontier Days now possess national reputation and the cowboys of the ranges of Arizona and New Mexico must vie with the champions of the world in the bucking broncho and steer roping contests.

The experience of previous years is invaluable to this year's management and the program of 1916 will be replete with new and thrilling features, and each day's performance will improve upon and add new features to that of the preceding. True fact that all purses were paid in 1915 as advertised and that all contestants, wherever they hailed from, were given a square deal, gives assurance that the non-notchers in wild west events will be in the arena this year. Fair, open competition with no one barred, characterizes each competitive event and no favorites will be played nor contracts given. The arena and all arena sports will be under the direction of F. L. Haworth, who has managed this end of the Frontier Days since its inception, while the executive and committee work will be under the supervision of Chairman E. A. Kastner.

Besides the Frontier Days sports, new and novel features will be interspersed throughout the program, to add spice and variety to the various events. Low excursion rates will be in effect on all lines and every inducement will be offered by the citizens of the Mile High City to attract the eyes of the residents of Arizona on this yearly event, which with the passing of the "real" cowboy and his games, offers the only real contest of its kind among the sports of the range. As in previous years, newspaper correspondents from Chicago, Boston, New York and California towns have notified the management that they will be in attendance to cover this big event.

IRON MASK DEAD

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] LEXINGTON, Ky., May 8.—Iron Mask, the eight year old gelding by Disguise out of Royal Rose, and owned by Jeff Livingston, died at the Kentucky Association farm here Sunday. In 1914 at Juarez, Iron Mask set a new world's record for three quarters of a mile, 1:09.3-5. Later in the same year and at the same track, he went five and a half furlongs in 1:09.3-5 which was a new world's record.
